Breaking Free: The John Huie Story

In His Own Words

Sunday, February 15, 4:00-5:30 p.m.

Highland Presbyterian Church—Activity Building
2381 Cloverdale Avenue, WS, NC 27103

John Huie came of age in the Deep South in the mid-twentieth century and disdained the regions racism and religious bigotry. Through many challenging wisdom-forming experiences including Outward Bound, a wilderness school, he found his “tribe” and a vehicle to promote two of the most important issues of our time—to respect and love one another and to protect the earth that sustains us all.
